RG104 E-1 Box 178

WORLD'S COLUMBIAN COMMISSION.

OFFICE OF THE

Director-General of the Exposition.

Chicago, Ill. U.S.A. Nov. 5, 1892

Superintendent of the Mint,

Philadelphia, Penna.

Sir:

I am advised by the Director of the Mint on the eve of his departure for Europe to communicate with you regarding the identification of single examples of the Columbian Souvenir Half Dollars now about to be coined in the Mint.

You will oblige the Exposition management very much by making arrangements to certify, with all due particularity, to the identity of the first souvenir coin, the four hundredth coin, the fourteen hundred and ninety second coin, the eighteen hundred and ninety second coin, and the last coin.

Please advise me of your willingness to comply with our wishes in this matter.

Further communications will be made with regard to the shipments of the coins when ready for delivery.

Very respectfully yours,

Geo R Davis

Director-General.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 178

World's Columbian Commission. Office of the Director General of the Exposition.
Chicago, Ill., U.S.A.
November 5, 1892

Superintendent of the Mint,
Philadelphia, Penna.

Sir:

I am advised by the Director of the Mint on the eve of his departure for Europe to communicate with you regarding the identification of single examples of the Columbian Souvenir Half Dollar now about to be coined in the Mint.

You will oblige the Exposition management very much by making arrangements to certify, with all due particularity, to the identity of the first souvenir coin, the four hundredth coin, the fourteen hundred and ninety second coin, the eighteen hundred and ninety second coin, and the last coin.

Please advise me of your willingness to comply with our wished in this matter.

Further communications will be made with regard to the shipments of the coins when ready for delivery.

Very respectfully yours,
Geo. R. Warring [?]
Director-General.